

In Memory of Easy Yang 楊亞獅 (1941-03-04 ~ 2006-08-08)

In Memory of Eashy Yang 楊亞獅
(1941-03-04 ~ 2006-08-08)

In Memory of Easy Yang 楊亞獅 (1941-03-04 ~ 2006-08-08)

From: kuo yen

Sent: 2006年8月11日 8:37 AM

Subject: Eashy Yang

All:

I got the news from my classmate at Chao-Tung University that Eashy Yang passed away last Tuesday (8/8).

KH

From: Gus Chang

Sent: 2006年8月11日 11:55 PM

Subject: Re: Eashy Yang

Dear Classmates, Family of our dear friend Eashy,

It is a shock indeed. His broad smiles in 2004 reunion was still so fresh in my mind.

We really do not understand God's arrangement for him, but surely we miss him, think God unloads him all burdens. I share Paul's thoughts, hope his family shall stay strong in these difficult days.

You have our prays. and we cherish every occasions that God brings us together.

Regards,

Gus Chang in KunShan, PRC

From: Paul Cheng-I Chen

Dear K. H. Yen,

It is a shock to hear the sad news about Eashy Yang. The memory his smile at last reunion is still fresh in my mind, yet now he is in another world.

Our thoughts are with his families at this difficulty time. Let us all pray for him and his families.

Best regards,

Paul Chen

From: George Huang

Sent: 2006年8月12日 9:42 AM

Subject: RE: Eashy Yang

I am deeply saddened to hear Eashy pass away. Although we never met again since our graduation, his beaming smile and easy going manner still stuck me. I hope the surviving family members take good care of themselves. And if there is anything I can do to help, please let me know!

In Memory of Easy Yang 楊亞獅 (1941-03-04 ~ 2006-08-08)

George Chao-feng Huang

From: George Huang
Sent: 2006 年 8 月 12 日 9:42 AM
Subject: RE: Eashy Yang

I am deeply saddened to hear Eashy pass away. Although we never met again since our graduation, his beaming smile and easy going manner still stuck me. I hope the surviving family members take good care of themselves. And if there is anything I can do to help, please let me know!

George Chao-feng Huang

From: Mark Yang
Sent: 2006 年 8 月 12 日 6:59 AM
Subject: Re: Eashy Yang

Dear Classmates and the Family of Eashy,

This is indeed a very surprising news. It is totally unexpected. About one year ago, we still wrote to each other when he said we were the only two Yangs in the class. I am sorry that one Yang is now left. On the other hand, Eashy has a good life with all his obligations fulfilled. He just chose to rest earlier.

I, too, hope that his family will remain strong in the difficult days.

Yang Chao-Kuen

From: CC Han
Sent: 2006 年 8 月 12 日 7:20 AM
Subject: Re: Eashy Yang

To: Eashy's Family:

I would like to express my deep condolence to the family of Eashy, and share the pain of the loss of our beloved classmate.

C. C. Han from Beijing

In Memory of Easy Yang 楊亞獅 (1941-03-04 ~ 2006-08-08)

From: James Liao

Sent: 2006 年 8 月 12 日 5:50 PM

Subject: Re: Eashy Yang

Dear Classmates:

I understand that our classmate, Dr. Eashy Yang's funeral service will be on Monday Aug 14, 2006. I really wish I could be there to pay the last respect to our dear classmate, Eashy. The attached file perhaps can express some of my feelings.

God Bless,

James H. Liao

親愛的 台大電機系 交大電研所 楊亞獅學長 安息

樽酒昔言歡, 燭剪西窗, 猶憶風姿磊落,
人音今已杳, 像瀾東閣, 只餘月影殘斜.

同窗好友 廖和健張靜心夫婦 敬輓

From: Bill Lee

Sent: 2006 年 8 月 12 日 5:07 PM

Subject: Re: Eashy Yang

Dear Classmates:

Out of our respect for our beloved classmate Eashy, I've respectfully put together a few simple webpages in remembrance of him, as follows:

<http://www.abettera.com/gardenntu1964.html>

<http://www.abettera.com/ntueasyyang01.html>

<http://www.abettera.com/ntueasyyang02.html>

<http://www.abettera.com/ntueasyyang03.html>

In Memory of Easy Yang 楊亞獅 (1941-03-04 ~ 2006-08-08)

<http://www.abettera.com/ntueasyyang04.html>

Our deep condolences to the Yang family!

If there are more you want to add, please let me know and I'd be honored to add them to the web-pages.

Best wishes!

Bill Lee

From: AJ Chen

Sent: 2006 年 8 月 12 日 11:11 PM

Subject: RE: Eashy Yang

Dear Classmates and Eashy's Family:

I was on travel in US since Aug. 6 and arrived, today, my son's home at LA, where I was able to read my e-mails. It was, indeed, a great shock to hear that Eashy passed on Aug. 8.

Although I only met him twice since our graduation, one in 1984 and the other in 2004 reunions, I still remembered vividly his big smile and his sense of humor. It was a great loss for his family, as well as our classmates. I would like to express my deep condolence to his family.

God bless to them.

With best regards,

A. J. Chen

From: Leonard Li

Sent: 2006 年 8 月 13 日 4:13 PM

Subject: To: Eashy Yang Family

To Jeane, Angela, and Jennifer,

Eashy's passing was certainly a shock to all of us. Please accept my condolences. May God comfort you and give you peace in this time of sorrow. As many of our classmates had mentioned, he will certainly remain in our memories forever.

Leonard Li

From: Paul Tien

Sent: 2006 年 8 月 13 日 5:29 PM

Subject: Passing of Eashy Yang

In Memory of Easy Yang 楊亞獅 (1941-03-04 ~ 2006-08-08)

To Jeane, Angela, Jennifer and family,

I am saddened by the passing of my good friend and one of the nicest persons I knew. We enjoyed playing snooker a lot back in our NTU EE Dept classmate days. I learned a lesson from him how to be good but not showing off...etc.

My condolences to you and wish you the best.

Paul (Chung-lien) Tien

From: Chang Lin

Sent: 2006 年 8 月 14 日 11:45 AM

Subject: RE: Eashy Yang

Dear Classmates :

About two years ago during our reunion, Eashy was a happy and talkative person. Certainly, he seemed a very healthy one. Suddenly, news came along that Eashy passed away. It was hard to believe what I was reading.

He talked and smiled just about the same person I knew of more than forty years ago. My impression was he maintained his live styles very well over the years.

May Eashy rest in peace and his family live on. That is live.

Best regards,

Chang Lin

From: Bin-luh Cheng

Sent: Sunday, January 14, 2007 8:57 PM

Subject: Letter to classmates

Dear classmates:

My name is Binluh Cheng. I was a transfer student from the ME to the EE department during 1962 (our junior year). Many of you might not know me well.

I attended our classmate Eashy Yang's funeral on August 14, 2006. Shortly after the funeral, classmate Mark Yang of Gainesville, FL contacted me about Eashy's passing away and asked me to write an email to share some information with other classmates about Eashy. I told him I would be happy to do so. However, the terminal illness and death of my stepmother and other family problems that followed had me occupied and made me emotionally unable to do the job. I want to apologize to all our classmates for the untimely delay. It is my fault, please forgive me.

In Memory of Easy Yang 楊亞獅 (1941-03-04 ~ 2006-08-08)

Eashy and I attended Chiao-Tung University in Hsinchu, Taiwan for our MS degrees after military service. We went to the US in 1967 to pursue our PhD degrees; he studied at the University of Nebraska in Lincoln and completed his program in 1969. He started to work as an engineer at North Nature Gas, Inc in Omaha, Nebraska right after his graduation. Eashy was transferred to Oklahoma and Texas with the same company and eventually became VP of Operations for International North Nature Gas, Inc.

According to Eashy's wife Jean, he just started to feel a little discomfort in January, 2006 and complained of getting tired easily. He took a regular annual physical check up in early March the same year. At that check up, his physician recommended a triple bypass operation the very next day. He had another operation in late March to remove part of his stomach due to bleeding. In that operation, his physicians suspected that he might have stomach cancer, yet they were not sure. He seemed to recover well after the two operations and regained a considerable amount of the weight he had lost in March. However, Eashy was definitively diagnosed with stomach cancer at the end of June. He then decided to take chemotherapy and tried the newly released medicine in early August. Unfortunately, after one week of chemotherapy and taking the new medicine, his white blood cell counts dropped tremendously and he was admitted to the hospital on August 6. He became unconscious on August 8 and passed away on August 9, 2006 at 3 AM.

Eashy's funeral was held at Champagne Forest Funeral Home of Spring, Texas on August 15, 2006. The farewell ceremony was attended by lots of his colleagues, friends and relatives. Among them were four of his classmates from Chiao-Tung University; they came from Houston, California and Florida. Eashy was survived by his wife Jean, two daughters (Jennifer, an electrical engineer and Angela, a physician), two sons-in-law and one grandson.

As we all know, Eashy was a very strong and healthy person. He loved all kinds of sports and was good at all of them. Many of us might still remember his fascinating pool skills in our old college days. He also had a low key and friendly personality that made people around him feel easy and comfortable. As one of our dear fellow classmates, I believe Eashy will be forever alive in our memory.

Finally, let me tell you a little bit about myself. I graduated from Michigan State University along with classmates M.H. Hong and L.R. Hsieh many years ago. I have three sons: Jimming, Winston and Warren. I am still teaching at Florida A&M University but will be retired on April 30, 2007, saying goodbye to the field of EE. I am living in a small house in the middle of woods in a remote country side and plan to become a farmer after the retirement. Anybody interested in country living is welcome to visit me at my simple small house in Havana, Florida.

We know each other as teenage boys in 1960, now we all become old fathers and grand fathers. It is hard to believe so many years had been passed. Time is really flying too fast isn't it? I wish we all pay special attention to our health and enjoy life for another "many" years

From: Mark Yang

Sent: Monday, January 15, 2007 5:54 AM

Subject: Re: Letter to classmates

In Memory of Easy Yang 楊亞獅 (1941-03-04 ~ 2006-08-08)

Dear Bin-luh,

Thank you so much for writing such a long letter at midnight, regarding the untimely passing away of Eashy. To our great relief, Eashy had lived a very fruitful life with great accomplishments, both in career and in family.

It is also nice to know that you intend to be a farmer. This is the healthiest activity one can do after retirement. Good for you.

I have been in Florida for 36 years and do not know there is a town called Havana. It must be a place totally hidden in the woods.

Mark

From: Mo, Charles

Sent: Wednesday, January 17, 2007 11:47 AM

Subject: RE: Letter to classmates

Binluh:

So touching a memory you brought to us all !

Look forward to see you young fellows at the August reunion cruise.

Very best warm regards,

Charles T. C. Mo

From: Bill Lee

Sent: Wednesday, January 17, 2007 5:48 PM

Subject: Re: Letter to classmates

Hello, Bin-Luh:

Great hearing from you and reading about your gracious reminiscences of Eashy Yang!

I've added and updated the following webpages with reminiscences by you and others:

<http://www.abettera.net/ntueasyyang05.html> (newly created page)

<http://www.abettera.net/gardenntu1964.html> (updated page)

By the way, would it be possible for you to send me a JPG file of your photo for me to place on the following "NTU Links" page?

<http://www.abettera.net/links7.html>

Congratulations on your upcoming retirement from Florida A&M University and the start of a new episode of your life in which you do things you enjoy doing!

In Memory of Easy Yang 楊亞獅 (1941-03-04 ~ 2006-08-08)

Keep in touch and best regards!

Your NTU classmate,
Bill Lee 李偉宗 敬筆
www.abettera.net
www.abettera.com

From: George Huang
Sent: Thursday, January 18, 2007 7:17 PM
Subject: RE: Letter to classmates

Bin-luh,

I remember you. Thank you for your story on Eashy. I still remember his contagious smiles back in our EE days. But time went so fast, I never met him again since graduation...

When you come to SF Bay Area next time, be sure to see us here. There are a bunch of us in the Silicon Valley.

Take care,

George Chao-feng Huang

From: CC Han
Sent: Sunday, January 21, 2007 4:55 PM
Subject: Re: Letter to classmates

Binlu/all good classmates:

Your letters are not just memorizing notes but also full of love and warm friendship. Binlu--never forget our good time together in Naval Academy. PLS arrange to meet anywhere you prefer.

I miss you all.

Best,

C.C.Han from Beijing

In Memory of Easy Yang 楊亞獅 (1941-03-04 ~ 2006-08-08)

From: Andy - Attraction Technologies
To: Bill Lee (abettera.net)
Sent: Wednesday, January 24, 2007 5:16 AM
Subject: Re: Eashy Yang's Photos 楊亞獅

G'day Uncle Bill,

Appreciated with your willing to share and I will definately link the site and credit it back to www.abettera.net once I have got time to finish.

I am surprised with the abettera website as there is an enormous time and effort involved to construct and maintain the site.

I have not yet visited America and don't know much about the difference between these two conutries but I believe it must have been an impressive tour visiting southern hemisphere. I work flexible hours and may be next time you visit, I can be your local guide.

Once again, thank you, Uncle Bill and appreciated!

Kind Regards,

Andy Yang

From: Bill Lee (abettera.net)
To: Andy - Attraction Technologies
Sent: Wednesday, January 24, 2007 3:07 PM
Subject: Re: Eashy Yang's Photos 楊亞獅

Hello, Andy!

I'm terribly sorry for the delay in response, because I don't know why but I only got hold of your email today while in the process of cleaning my Outlook Express email files!

Please do! Go ahead and use whatever you think proper! Let me know so that I can create on www.abettera.net a link to that site. I also will create a link to your www.attraction.com.au site.

My apologies in the late response and best wishes!

How's Australia? We had a tour of Australia, New Zealand and Fiji in Aug~Sep last year (<http://www.abettera.net/tours09.html>).

God bless and you take care!
Bill Lee or Uncle Bill
www.abettera.net
www.abettera.com

In Memory of Easy Yang 楊亞獅 (1941-03-04 ~ 2006-08-08)

From: Andy - Attraction Technologies
To: billlee@abettera.net
Sent: 2007 年 1 月 3 日 12:20 AM
Subject: re: Eashy Yang's Photos 楊亞獅

李伯伯 Bill 您好,

我叫楊學智 Andy Yang。楊亞獅是我的大伯。

看到我大伯在 abettera.net 許多珍貴的相片資料不禁聲淚俱下。感謝您！而我想在用網站來紀念我大伯。您不會介意我拿來用於 eashy.com 的網站吧。先給您打聲招呼，以免失禮。

感謝萬分!感恩!

楊學智敬上

Welcome to <http://www.attraction.com.au>
Professional and Affordable IT Solutions
Never compromise your business need!
We custom, design and build professional program or/and websites which are integrated into your business. 0405 000 885 or 02 9646 1800

Increase Efficiency, Reduce Cost

